Est. 1989 Vol. 23 • Issue 54
April 2010

Wow, what a month. March is over and as you read this and except for our March show I'm sure you are glad it is over. In like a lion out like a lamb!!

A letter of more thanks and appreciation, first to all who entered the show and made the deadline, made my job easy. To all our sitters, we can not sell and boast if there is no one there. To Georjana Macri for her superb job at hospitality for the reception and all who braved the weather and made it a success.

As always to the hanging committee, for the great job, again while sitting many compliments on our work and the way it is displayed. To Ann Lombardo for getting us out to the media and to Jim Witker for the posters. If you can help with poster distribution please contact Jim or Dom Lamontanaro.

Thank you to all who made it to pick-up on time even if we had to nudge you a bit. Our closet is a closet not a personal storage area. As we have continued to grow the space has diminished.

Thank you Olympia for the catalog at a very busy personal time and special thanks to Dom Lamontanaro and Jim Wightman for making sure the gallery was opened and closed.

So looking forward to the next show and don't forget contact Robbi Goldberg for the opportunity to show at Town Hall and contact Bill Girimonti for an Art in the Park booth or space in the members' tent.

Hoping to see you all at the next reception,

Mike Meehan
SAA President.

Congratulations Linda!

INCREASE ATTENDANCE AT OUR OPENINGS AND SHOWS by using the power of our group

Want more people at our Opening Receptions and Art Shows? Invite your friends! With so many of us showing our work at the Levitas Center For The Arts at the Southampton Cultural Center, if we all invited two people and came to the opening, we'd have over 150 people! That would create a real buzz, spread the word and build attendance at our events. Building excitement at our shows leads to more sales of artwork, a more polished reputation and increased positive awareness. The fellow members working to put up the shows, do the catalog, distribute flyers, and artists who put their work up are all to be commended- the Winter Show looked terrific. So, try inviting a few friends to come with you to the next opening- that's the Memorial Day Show, reception is on May 29th. Only weeks away.

A Note from our Members...

Dear Members,

Our Winter Show of early March was a delightful exhibit. At the reception, I heard many praises for the art and scope of styles represented. We indeed have a trove of talent.

Special thanks are owed to Joanne Rosko and her hanging team. It is a wonder that Joanne can arrange such a harmonious exhibit despite the range of styles and colors our artists present. In light of all the work that goes into creating our exhibits and receptions, we need to increase our efforts to encourage more viewers.

Ann Lombardo is doing a great deal of PR work for placing press releases in key periodicals. Still, efforts of individual members would help as well to spread the word of our exhibits to friends and relations. To those of you who belong to special groups, churches and other social organizations, SAA can e-mail letter size posters which you could display. The posters would show the dates, times and reception information of current exhibits.

Please furnish your e-mail to me at dlamonta@optonline.net and we will forward a poster for download. Successful exhibits require solid attendance numbers, so let's all help in this effort.

Dom Lamontanaro
